Phyllis Gailey Literary Competition 2027

Title:

'Me and My Shadow...'

Entrants must compose an original story of 800 words – 1000 words relating to the title.

Please adhere strictly to the word count and ensure you record your final word count on your entry, along with your name and Institute.

The title is open to interpretation so let your imagination take flight!

Submissions to WI Headquarters before:

Monday, 25th January 2027.

£1.00 per entry.

The overall winner, judged to have compiled the best original story, will be presented with the Phyllis Gailey Trophy at the AGM in March 2027.

The stories that place 1st, 2nd and 3rd will be published in consecutive issues of the Ulster Countrywoman magazine..